Mazzei - Castello di Fonterutoli 1998 Siepi Toscana Rosso

Tuscany, Tuscany

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window:

Blackish garnet, very deep and dark. Very sweet, penetrating aromas of chocolate and toasted coffee. Voluminous on the palate; round and supple in texture, but with no lack of tannic support. Not as massive and sumptuous as the superlative 1997 but, considered on its own, very strong indeed. Very long on the finish.
