

TUSCAN GOLD COAST

Maremma is now one of Italy's most coveted vineyard regions. But despite its great terroir, many producers are turning to international varieties, writes MICHAEL PALIJ MW BELGUARDO: Fonterutoli's new venture in Morellino reflects the style and clarity of purpose one would expect from one of Italy's most respected winemaking families. The wines from the old vineyards are a bit pedestrian but the 'Tenuta Belguardo', from new vineyards, demonstrates the direction the Mazzei family are taking.